

A PEOPLE'S HISTORY OF NEGRIL, JAMAICA

Edited by David Stanfield

Contributors

Cecille Arthurs

Christine Beck

Lascelles Beck

Delores Donaldson O'Connor

Oswald Donaldson

Trevor Forbes

Lindsay Manderson

A PEOPLE'S HISTORY OF NEGRIL, JAMAICA

Edited by David Stanfield, with Cecille Arthurs, Christine Beck, Lascelles Beck, Delores Donaldson O'Connor, Oswald Donaldson, Trevor Forbes, and Lindsay Manderson

Visitors to Negril experience a marvelous beach, good food, fine music and the graciousness of the local people. This book explores the lives of some of these people over 50 years of tourism development. It offers readers a deeper understanding of how local working people help make Negril, "the capital of casual".

Table of Contents:

Chapter 1 - The Beginning of Tourism

Chapter 2 - The Hill Family Lands

Chapter 3 - Llantrisant

Chapter 4 - Landowners and Us

Chapter 5 - The Queen, Mr. Seaga, the Club and Children

Chapter 6 - Lascelles, Doris and Christine Beck

Chapter 7 - Donaldson Family

Chapter 8 - Captain Quality

Chapter 9 - Lindsay Manderson

Revenues from sales after publication costs support the Negril Chamber of Commerce as well as Negril's Theodora Project and St. Anthony's Kitchen

Book is published by Terra Institute through lulu.com

To order the paperback for $20+shipping+tax click here: Order paperback

To order the ebook version for $15+tax click here: Order ebook